January 15th 2019: Benefits of Technology in Education

Are we educating students for the 20th Century or preparing them for the 21st Century? We know that digitalization, automation, computerization, networking and other key disciplines are necessary as we continue our journey into the Information Age. Advances brought on by innovations and technologies continue to change our lifestyle; at work or at play. What do we need to know to improve our own eco-system of learning? Today I have asked Dr. Edgar Leon to discuss three key questions on how to improve our technology learning. What should be our approach to integrate technology in the classroom.
