Nicholas Noe
Nicholas Noe, as a member of the 603rd Air and Space Operation Center was managing combat reports. He kept all records of planning, ongoing operations to the results of each mission. Reporting to the CCO (Commanding Officer of Combat Operations), Nicholas had 10-12 subordinate units that sent him intelligence, weapons status, posture levels, asset positions, personnel, and additional information that would give the edge to real-time decision making by Officers. One particular group included a pararescue team in Djibouti that was at the ready 24/7. Now retired and ready to tell his story, Nicholas Noe has a BS in advertising, and MBA and an AAS in Air and Space Operation Technology.
