Danelle Delgado
"Some people are lost in the fire, some people are built from it". Arising from the fires of life, the now serial entrepreneur known as the "millionaire maker", Danelle Delgado began her journey when faced with raising her three small children on her own. Forced to make a change she went from working three jobs, 80-90 hours a week and struggling to survive, to an award winning success in business by persisting her way in to align with with some of the world's most renowned business experts and gained them as her personal mentors. After years of high-level learning with them, she built some of the fastest growing online business training companies to date. She is a known online influenc
