April 2nd 2021: A Discerning Eye: The Gardner Museum Art Theft with Carol Orange

On March 18, 1990 thieves broke into Boston's Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum and stole 13 works of art including masterpieces by such renowned artists as Vermeer, Rembrandt and Degas, in what would become history's largest art theft. Thirty years later, the crime remains unsolved with none of the paintings recovered. This tragic robbery inspired A Discerning Eye [Cavan Bridge Press, October 13, 2020] a debut novel by Carol Orange, writer and fine arts consultant for over twenty years. The novel's art heist mystery and high stakes international intrigue involves Interpol, the FBI, the Mafia, d
