

Dinosaur Detectives Wednesday at 4 PM Pacific

On "Dinosaur Detectives", we will explore, study and discover different types of fossilized ancient life forms and find out how dinosaurs looked and behaved when they were alive.

Our goal and objective is that exploring science history together is fun. We hope to inspire kids to want to learn more about paleontology science.

Anna will engage curiosity, share her passion, knowledge and expertise by teaching about science that will inspire enthusiasm for dinosaurs and the field of paleontology science. You'll learn with her when she asks Paleontologists questions and goes to mu
