Is there Really Truth and Justice for All? Archives Available

How often is an innocent person found guilty of a crime they did not commit? If you had asked me this question in 2005, I would have said, not many, only because I was uneducated. Now after specializing as a Criminal Defense Investigator for the past decade my response is a complete 360. Not because the accused are my clients, but because I am now more educated and have firsthand knowledge and experience with freeing the innocent after being wrongly accused.

There are many wrongful arrests and convictions in the United States. How can we fix this? Understanding that our current judici
